Re: *Securities and Exchange Commission v. Wey, et al., 15-cv-7116-PKC (SDNY)

Dear Judge Castel:

On May 27, 2017, the Court issued a Memorandum and Order granting in part and denying in part the motions to dismiss filed by defendants Uchimoto, Erbek and Newman. Dkt. No. 142. The Court directed the Commission to file any motion to amend the complaint within 21 days of the order. Thus, if the Commission seeks to replead any portion of the complaint, it must move to amend by April 17, 2016. Id. The Commission respectfully requests an extension of this deadline to allow it time to meet with counsel for defendant Uchimoto and to assess whether to replead allegations relating to him. We are currently scheduled to meet with Uchimoto's counsel on May 17, 2017.

The Commission therefore respectfully asks the Court to continue the deadline for a motion to amend the complaint to May 31, 2017. Defendants Uchimoto and Newman consent to this request.

There is no scheduled conference. Because the case is stayed pending resolution of the related criminal matter, there are no other scheduled dates that would be impacted by this request.

Sincerely,
